OUR MILITARY VISITORS. - As stated in yesterday's Gazette, the Washington Light Infantry Corps, Col. William G. Moore commanding. Wednesday evening, held a meeting to take action upon the invitarioo extended to them by the committee of arrangements having charge of our parade, to unite with us on the 224 inst., in celebrating the birthday of "the first President," and adopted a resolution of acceptance. This corps has among its members some of the most prominent and influortial gentlemen of Washington, and in gentlemanly bearing, gallanery, discipline, and fine appearance, they are second to none in the country. With their showy and handsome uniforms, consisting of a white Austrian cloth swallow-tail coat with blue and gold trimmings, blue pants and bearskin shakos, they will, no doubt, prove a mark d attraction on the 22d, and as the Fifth Regiment will also be in line, our citizens will have the opportunity of witnessing and comparing the fine marching and soldierly appearance of the two crack military organizations in our neighborhood.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

-Charlotte Cushman, died at the Parker House, Boston, at 9:10 this morning. Her aga was 59 years and 7 months. She has been afflicted with a cancer for a long time, but was etter last week and took a short walk on Saturday last, when she took cold and pnuemonia resulted. She was quite cheerful yesterday but a change occured at 2 o'clock this morning and at 7 o'clock she became unconscious and death followed at the hour mentioned.

-It seems that the man Rugg who was shot and killed at Dublintown near Tarrytown, N. Y., Wednesd y night, while in a house with a party of burglars was acting for the police, having given notice to them of the intended robbery and accompanied the thieves in accordance with a previous arrangement. The man who shot him was not aware of the arrangement.

-Henry Wood, colored, who with David H. Skidmore, jr., is accused of killing the four inmates, including Skidmore's father, of the Skidmore residence at Deer Park L. I., was arrested yesterday.

-The boiler of a portable saw mill on the land of T. W. Hager, at Framington, Mass., exploded this a. m., killing three of the four men employed about it.

SOMETHING NEWI The undersigned would respectfully announce to the citizens of Alexandria and vicinity, tast, having introduced their improved STEAM FEATHER RENOVATOR into this place, they are now prepared to cleanse and renovate teathers in the most effectual manier. By a pressure of steam, and the way it is applied, together with the facilities for ventilat-ing and drying which we have invented, we claim more effectually, and in less time, to renwate feathers than by any process ever offered to the public. Our process not only cleanses old feathers from all impurities, renewing their natted condition, thereby increasing their bulk nearly one half, making them light and lively, dean and healthy, but also removes the disa
